The petitioner/Sole Accused, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under section 303(2) of BNS r/w Section 21(4) of Mines and Minerals (Development and Regulation) Act, 1957, in (*) Crime No.141 of 2025 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner has illegally transported 1/4 unit of river sand by using a bullock cart. Hence, a case has been registered.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. Hence, he seeks anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.side) submits that the petitioner is arrayed as sole accused and he illegally transported 1/4 unit of river sand without any valid permission. Hence, he objected to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner. However, he fairly concedes that the properties have also been recovered and no previous case is pending against the petitioner.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also considering the fact that the properties have also been recovered, and no previous case is pending against the petitioner, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, with certain conditions.
