2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner and other accused person have illegally transported 1/4 unit of river sand in a double Bullock cart, without any valid permission. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is innocent and a false case has been foisted against him. He would further submit that the petitioner is in custody from 02.05.2025. Hence, he seeks bail.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor would submit that the petitioner and other accused persons have illegally transported 1/4 unit of river sand in a double Bullock cart, any valid permission and the petitioner has four previous cases, out of which two cases are similar in nature. Hence, he objected to grant bail to the petitioner. However, he fairly concedes that the property has been recovered.

5. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and also the fact that property has been recovered and also taking into consideration the period of incarceration and taking note of the quantity of the seized river sand, this court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner, subject to the certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail on his executing
