2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner has illegally transported three units of aralai stones by using a tipper lorry. Hence, a case has been registered.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is an innocent person and has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. Hence, he seeks anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.side) submits that the petitioner is arrayed as sole accused and he illegally transported 3 unites of aralai stones without any valid permission. He further submitted that the petitioner is having three previous cases, and hence, he objected to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner. However, he fairly concedes that the properties have also been recovered.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also considering the fact that the properties have also been recovered, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the Judicial Magistrate Court, Iluppur,
