The petitioners/ A1 & A2, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under section 303(2) of BNS r/w. Section 21(1) of Mines and Minerals (Development and Regulation) Act, 1957 in Crime No.103 of 2025 on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioners have illegally transported 3 units of gravel sand by using a tipper lorry. Hence, a case has been registered.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submits that the petitioners are innocent and the petitioners have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and also a false case has been foisted against them. Hence, he seeks anticipatory bail.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. side) submits that the petitioners have illegally transported 3 units of gravel sand, and there is no previous case against the petitioners. The properties have also been recovered. However, he objected to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Taking into consideration of the facts and circumstances of the case and the nature of the offence, and considering the quantity of river sand, and considering the fact that the properties have been recovered, and also considering the fact that there are no previous case against the petitioners, this court is inclined to grant
