2. The case of the prosecution is that there was a money dispute between the petitioner and the defacto complainant. On 15.05.2025 at about 11.30 pm., the petitioner abused the defacto complainant with filthy language and pelted stones on the defacto complainant and inflicted injuries. The very next day, the accused 2 and 3 attacked the defacto complainant with bare hands and abused him with filthy language. Hence, the case has been registered.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and his name has been falsely implicated in this case. He would further submit that the petitioner will never abscond and will not tamper the witnesses and also ready to abide by any condition imposed by this Court and hence, he seeks to grant bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl side) would submit that the injured discharged from the hospital and the co-accused were already remanded and released on bail.

5. Taking into consideration of the facts and circumstances of the case and also the fact that the injured discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, with certain conditions:

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of
