the offences punishable under Sections 379 and 468 of the Indian Penal Code, 1860, read with Section 21(1) of the Mines and Minerals (Development and Regulation) Act, 1957, in Crime No.632 of 2022 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that on 22.09.2022, at around 10:00 p.m., while the respondent police were on patrol near Peravurani Pookkollai Anna Nagar, they found that the accused persons had illegally transported 4 units of river sand in an Ashok Leyland Lorry bearing Registration No.TN-73-B-1666. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He would further submit that a false case has been foisted against the petitioner. He would further submit that there are no previous cases against the petitioner. Hence, he seeks anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) would submit that the accused had illegally transported 4 units of river sand without valid permission or license. He would further submit that the alleged properties have been seized by the respondent police. He would also submit that there are no previous cases against the petitioner. He would also submit that the investigation is still pending, and therefore, he opposes the grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. This Court has heard the learned counsel on both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case, the nature of offence allegedly committed by the petitioner and taking note the quantity of minerals involved in this case and also taking into consideration the fact that there are no previous cases against the petitioner, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, subject to certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of his arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Peravurani on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties, each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent Police or to the Police Officer, who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction
