2. The case of the prosecution is that due to previous enmity, the accused attacked the defacto complainant. It is alleged that the petitioner attacked him with wooden log. Hence, the case has been registered.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and his name has been falsely implicated in this case. He would further submit that the petitioner will never abscond and will not tamper the witnesses and also ready to abide by any condition imposed by this Court and hence, he seeks to grant bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl side) would submit that the petitioner is not having any previous case and there was no injury caused to the defacto complainant.

5. Taking into consideration of the facts and circumstances of the case and also the fact that the petitioner is not having any previous case, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, with certain conditions:

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Tiruppathur,
