3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submits that the first respondent has initiated domestic violence proceedings against her husband and her in-laws. It is submitted that the first petitioner is the father-in-law, second petitioner is the mother-in-law and the third petitioner is the sister-in-law of the first respondent herein and they are in no way connected with the allegations made by the first respondent in the DVC case. 4.Learned counsel appearing for the respondent submits that the trial in the domestic violence case initiated as against the petitioners is over and now the matter is posted for arguments. Further, he submits that if this Court is inclined to dispense with the appearance of the petitioners, this Court may impose requisite conditions to see to it that the presence of the petitioners at the times, during which the presence of the petitioners is mandatory be safeguarded so that the petitioners do not frustrate the trial proceedings by dragging on the same to the detriment of the respondent.

5.This Court, taking into consideration the submission made by the learned counsel for the petitioners, permits the petitioners to raise all the grounds as raised herein before the trial court at the time of trial. Taking into consideration the request made by the learned counsel for the petitioners, their appearance before the trial court is dispensed with except on the day on which judgment is to be pronounced and if for any particular reason, the presence of the petitioners is necessary, the trial court, at its wisdom, shall direct them to appear on those days.
