2. The case of the prosecution is that due to previous enmity, on 15.05.2025 at around 3.30 pm., the accused assaulted the defacto complainant with wooden sticks and threatened him with dire consequences. Hence, the case has been registered.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submits that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and their names have been falsely implicated in this case. He would further submit that the petitioners will never abscond and will not tamper the witnesses and also ready to abide by any condition imposed by this Court and hence, he seeks to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. side) would submit that the petitioners are not having any previous case and there was no injury caused to the defacto complainant.

5. Taking into consideration of the facts and circumstances of the case and also the fact that the petitioners are not having any previous case, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners, with certain conditions:

6. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Thiruppathur on
