2.The case of the prosecution is that the petitioners have illegally transported one unit of gravel sand in the patta land belongs to the first petitioner/A1 by using Tipper lorry bearing registration No.TN-46-M-2994, without permit. Hence, a case has been registered.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent and a false case has been foisted against them. Hence, she seeks anticipatory bail.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl side) would submit that the petitioners have illegally transported one unit of gravel sand, and hence he objected to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner. However, he fairly concedes that no previous case is pending against the petitioners.

5. Taking into consideration of the facts and circumstances of the case and also the fact that no previous case is pending against the petitioners, this court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners, with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate - I, Kulithalai,
