2.Heard the learned Counsel for the petitioner and Mr.J.Ashok, learned Additional Government Pleader appearing for the respondents.

3.Learned Counsel for the petitioner would invite my attention to subsequent developments, namely the fact that the newly impleaded fourth respondent has challenged the order of the District Revenue Officer, which is now sought to be implemented. 4.Learned Additional Government Pleader would submit that in order to implement the order of the first respondent, the Tahsildar proceeded to conduct survey on 19.03.2025, however, one Sakthivel objected to the survey being conducted on the pretext that he is preferring an appeal against the order of the District Revenue Officer.

5.In view of the fact that the challenge made by the fourth respondent before this Court was in fact withdrawn on 30.11.2023, the said fourth respondent cannot have any objections for survey to be conducted in order to implement the order of the first respondent. In view of the resistance shown by the fourth respondent, the second respondent shall seek the assistance of the jurisdictional police officials, who shall ensure that sufficient police personnel are made available to enable the second respondent to survey the petitioner's property, by way of implementing the order of the first respondent. The said exercise shall be carried within a period of eight [8] weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this order.
