2. The case of the prosecution is that due to land dispute, the petitioner along with the other accused abused the defacto complainant's husband in filthy language and attacked him with deadly weapon and caused injuries. Hence the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He would further submit that the petitioner is in custody from 08.05.2025 Hence, he seeks bail.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) would submit that due to land dispute, the petitioner along with other accused abused the defacto complainant's husband in filthy language and attacked him with deadly weapon and caused injuries. He would further submit that a counter case has also been registered by the respondent police in Crime No.163 of 2025 and the injured has been discharged from the hospital. Hence, he objected to grant bail to the petitioner.

5. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and considering the fact that the injured has been discharged from hospital and also taking into consideration of the period of incarceration, this court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner, subject to the following conditions:

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail on his
