No.139 of 2021 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that there was a dispute between the petitioner's family and the defacto complainant's family. On 07.06.2021 at about 7.10 p.m., while discussing the family dispute, the petitioner abused the defacto complainant and his sister with filthy language and attacked and thereby, they sustained injuries. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent and he has been falsely implicated in this case. Further, the petitioner has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. Hence, he seeks anticipatory bail.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) would submit that the already the petitioner was granted anticipatory bail, but he failed to execute the bail bond with sureties. Hence, he objected to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner. However, he fairly concedes that the injured has been discharged from the hospital and a counter case has also been registered in Crime No.138 of 2021.

5. Taking into consideration of the facts and circumstances of the case and also considering the fact that FIR was registered in the year 2021 and the injured has been discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the
