ORDER

The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 406, 420, 468, 471, 365, 342, 323, 506(ii) of IPC, in Crime No.10 of 2025 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that, due to a land dispute between the parties, on 11.01.2025, the petitioners and others trespassed into the house of the defacto complainant, kidnapped him, took him to a building, and obtained his signature on stamp papers for realizing an amount. Thereafter, they left the defacto complainant at his house. Hence, a case has been registered against the petitioners.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that initially the petitioner had preferred a complaint before the Ponparrapi Police Station, which was enquired and closed. Subsequently, he preferred a complaint before the Superintendent of Police, Karur District, and after enquiry, the same was also closed. Thereafter, a petition under Section 151(3) of the Cr.P.C. was filed before the Judicial Magistrate Court-II, Karur, based on which the present First Information Report was registered. He seeks this Court to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent police submitted that money dispute is pending between the parties.

5. Considering the fact that a money dispute is pending between the parties and also considering the allegations, interim anticipatory bail was granted to the petitioners and the matter was referred to the Mediation Centre for settlement. However, the mediation failed. Hence, the interim order already granted by this Court is made absolute and confirmed, and this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners, subject to certain conditions.
