2. The case of the prosecution is that the defacto complainant's husband has not returned from his office. The second wife conducted him over phone, but he has not responded. Hence, she rushed to his office and break-open the door and found that the defacto complainant's husband had died. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned Counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner never committed any offence as alleged by the respondent police. No eye witnesses are there in order to implicate that this petitioner as an accused. He further submitted that the deceased is a womanizer. Since the petitioner and the deceased had money dispute, she had been roped in this case. Hence, he prayed for granting bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the State submitted that the deceased was a womanizer. The petitioner, A1 borrowed money from the deceased for which he offered sexual favour from the petitioner, her daughter and other relatives. On the date of occurrence, the petitioner along with other relatives went to the office of the petitioner and kicked on the deceased private part due to which he staggered down and died. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor has further stated that Accused Nos.2 to 5 were already granted bail by this Court and

5. Taking into consideration of the fact that the investigation is almost completed and the presence of A1 for interrogation is not necessary and also considering the period of incarceration, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner subject to the following conditions.

6. Accordingly, the criminal original petition is ordered and the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail on executing a bond for a sum of Rs.25,000/- (Rupees Twenty Five Thousand only) with two sureties, each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Judicial Magistrate No.VI, Madurai, and on further conditions that:-

[a] the sureties shall affix their photographs and Left Thumb Impression in the surety bond and the Magistrate may obtain a copy of their Aadhar card or Bank pass Book to ensure their identity.

[b] the petitioner shall report before the respondent police daily at 10.30 a.m for a period of 30 days and thereafter, as and when required for interrogation.

[c] the petitioner shall appear before the trial Court during every hearing date without fail.

[d] the petitioner shall not tamper with evidence or witness either during investigation or trial.

[e] the petitioner shall not abscond either during investigation or trial.

CRL OP(MD).No.9162 of 2025

[f] the petitioner shall not in any manner interfere with or disturb the victim girl.

[g] On breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Magistrate/Trial Court is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioner in accordance with law as if the conditions have been imposed and the petitioner released on bail by the learned Magistrate/Trial Court himself as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.K.Shaji vs. State of Kerala [(2005)AIR SCW 5560].

[h] If the accused thereafter absconds, a fresh FIR can be registered under Section 269 BNS 2023.
