ORDER : The Court made the following order :-

The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under section 379 of IPC r/w. Section 21(1) of Mines and Minerals (Development and Regulation) Act, 1957 in Crime No.455 of 2023 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner has illegally transported 4 units of river sand by using a Lorry. Hence, a case has been registered.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is an innocent person, and has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. Hence, he seeks anticipatory bail.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. side) submits that the case is of the year 2023. The petitioner has illegally transported 4 units of river sand, and the properties have been recovered.

5. Taking into consideration of the facts and circumstances of the case and the nature of the offence, and taking into account of the fact that the properties have been recovered, and also considering the fact that the case is of the year 2023, by this time most of the investigation would have been completed, this court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, with certain conditions.
