For Anticipatory Bail in Crime No.206 of 2024 on the file of the Respondent Police.

ORDER : The Court made the following order :-

The petitioner/Accused No.2, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under section 379 of IPC, 1860 r/w Section 21(1) of the Mines and Minerals (Development and Regulation) Act, 1957, in Crime No.206 of 2024 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner and other accused persons have illegally transported three units of river sand by using tipper lorry. Hence, a case has been registered.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He would further submit that co-accused was already arrested and released on bail and hence, he seeks anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.side) submits that the petitioner along with other accused persons were illegally transported three units of river sand without any valid permission. He would further submit that the petitioner is having two previous cases similar in nature. Hence, he objected to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner. However, he fairly concedes that the co-accused was already arrested and released on bail and the properties have also been recovered.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, and taking into account of the fact that as the date of occurrence is 25.05.2024, by this time most of the investigation would have been completed, and also considering the fact that the co-accused was already released on bail and the properties have also been recovered, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, subject to certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate Court No.II, Karur, on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of
