custody on 25.05.2025 for the offences under sections 191(2), 126(2), 296(b), 109 and 351(3) of BNS, 2023 in Crime No.143 of 2025 on the file of the respondent police, seek bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that due to the previous enmity, the petitioners herein have unlawfully assembled with deadly weapons and attacked the defacto complainant and also abused him in filthy language. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent persons and a false case has been foisted against them. He would further submit that it is a case and counter. Hence, he seeks bail.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.side) would submit that it is a case in counter and no one has sustained injury in the said occurrence. He further submitted that there is no previous case pending against the petitioners. He further submitted that investigation of the case is pending and hence, he strongly opposed to grant bail to the petitioners.

5. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and also the fact that it is a case in counter and also taking into consideration the period of incarceration and taking note of the fact that the petitioners have no previous case, this court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioners, subject to the certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail on their
