2. It appears that the petitioner has a private dispute with a neighbouring party, who has installed a small gate abutting the petitioner's entrance. Both entrances are adjoining. The petitioner's attempt appears to be an effort to claim exclusive use of the open space to the exclusion of the private party. As such, this Court finds no merit in the writ petition. Accordingly, the writ petition is dismissed. No costs. However, it is open to the petitioner to establish his rights before the competent Civil Court in the manner known to law.
