For Anticipatory Bail in Crime No.27 of 2025 on the file of the Respondent Police.

ORDER : The Court made the following order :-

The petitioner/ Accused, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under section 303(2) of BNS, 2023 r/w. Sections 4(1)(1A) and 21(1) of Mines and Minerals (Development and Regulation) Act, 1957 r/w. Section 3 of TN Public Property (Prevention of Damage and Loss) Act, 1992 in Crime No.27 of 2025 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner's son illegally transported one unit of gravel sand using a tractor and trailer. When the de-facto complainant attempted to stop that vehicle, the petitioner's son did not stop and fled from the spot. While the de-facto complainant was chasing the tractor, the tractor collided with the vehicle of a government official, thereby causing damage to it. Hence, a case has been registered.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that this is the second anticipatory bail application before this Court. The petitioner is an innocent person, and has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He has been falsely implicated in this case. He further submits that the co-accused has been arrested and subsequently released on bail. Hence, he seeks anticipatory bail.

A2 has been arrested and subsequently released on bail. He further submits that there are two previous cases against the petitioner. Hence, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Taking into consideration of the facts and circumstances of the case and the nature of the offence, and also considering the fact that the co-accused have been arrested and released on bail, this court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the Judicial Magistrate – II, Sattur, Virudhunagar District, on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of
