today (02.04.2025) under the caption 'for dismissal'. In spite of the same, there is no representation for the petitioner either in the pre-lunch session or in the post-lunch session. However, it is brought to the notice of this Court by the learned Special Government Pleader that the amount that was claimed by the petitioner in the present writ petition has already been paid to the petitioner as early as in the month of December, 2022 itself. The learned counsel appearing for Respondent No.3 also submitted that the entire amount due and payable to the petitioner towards gratuity together with interest has already been paid. In the light of the above, this Court is convinced that the relief sought in the writ petition has become infructuous.

3. Accordingly, this Writ Petition is dismissed as infructuous.

There shall be no order as to costs.
