2. The case of the respondent/complainant is that the petitioner borrowed a loan of Rs.15,00,000/- from the respondent on 15.09.2021 agreeing to repay the same within one year and had given cheque, dated 15.09.2022 bearing number 802241 for an amount of Rs.15,00,000/-. When the respondent has presented the cheque for collection on 15.09.2022, the same was returned with reason “Insufficient funds”, that the respondent has sent legal notice on 21.09.2022 to the petitioner demanding repayment of the amount covered by the cheque and the same was received by the petitioner on 24.09.2022. Despite receiving the same, the petitioner neither sent reply nor repaid the amount. Therefore, the respondent has filed a private complaint for the offence under Section 138 of Negotiable Instruments Act against the petitioner.

3. It is seen from the records that the petitioner has been convicted by the trial Court in S.T.C.No.776 of 2022 for the alleged offence punishable under Section 138 of Negotiable Instruments Act and sentenced to undergo Simple Imprisonment for a period of 6 months and also directed to pay a compensation of Rs.15,00,000/-, in default, to undergo Simple Imprisonment for a period of one month. Challenging the above said conviction and sentence, the petitioner has filed an appeal in CrI.A.No.9 of 2024 on the file of the learned Additional District and Sessions Court (PCR) I, Trichy and the learned Additional District and Sessions Court (PCR) I, dissatisfied with the dismissal of the appeal, the petitioner has preferred the present Criminal Revision Case along with the above miscellaneous petition seeking suspension of sentence.

4. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that there are several infirmities in the prosecution case and further there are contradictions in material particulars between the evidence of the prosecution witnesses.

5. This Court has carefully considered the contentions put forth by the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner and also perused the materials available on record.

6. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner pointed out that certain infirmities and inconsistencies in this case and also certain contradictions in material particulars. The fact remains that there are arguable points involved in this criminal revision and further the criminal revision is not likely to be taken up for final hearing in the near future and as such, this Court is of the considered view that the petitioner herein is entitled to the relief of grant of suspension of sentence.

7. In the result, the Criminal Miscellaneous Petition is ordered. Accordingly, the relief of suspension of sentence is granted to the petitioner on the following conditions:-
