bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner and the defacto complainant are close relatives and due to some dispute arose between them, the petitioner had abused the daughter of the defacto complainant in filthy language and pushed her down. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any offences as alleged by the prosecution. He further submitted that the petitioner is ready and willing to abide by any conditions which may be imposed by this Hon'ble Court. Hence, he seeks anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) submitted that no one was sustained injuries and there is no previous case pending as against the petitioner. However, he vehemently opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also the fact that no one was sustained injuries and there is no previous case pending as against the petitioner, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, subject to certain conditions.
