The petitioner, with an allegation that the second respondent police is harassing him under the guise of an enquiry, has approached this Court.

2.The learned Government Advocate(Crl.side) appearing for the official respondents submits that they are not harassing the petitioner. In fact, the fourth respondent, who is none other than the mother-in-law of the petitioner, has lodged a complaint as against the petitioner that he illegally has taken the child from her custody. Further, he submits that originally, the child was in the custody of the mother, ie., wife of the petitioner. Since she got job opportunity in abroad, she left the child with her mother. Thereafter, the petitioner has forcibly taken the child from the custody of the fourth respondent. Therefore, the fourth respondent has lodged a complaint and the child is also now rescued and handed over to the fourth respondent. The petitioner has also given a statement before the second respondent Police that he will workout his remedy before the Family Court.
