for the offences punishable under Sections 329(4), 296(b), 115(2), 118(1) and 351(3) of BNS, 2023 r/w. Section 4 of TNPHW Act in Crime No.110 of 2025 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that based on information received from the daughter of the de-facto complainant's aunt that some persons had trespassed into their house, the de-facto complainant rushed there. When she questioned the accused persons, they abused them using filthy language, threatened them, and also assaulted them, thereby causing injury. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that this is the second anticipatory bail application filed before this Court, and it is a case, case in counter. A case has also been registered against the de-facto complainant in Crime No.111 of 2025 on the file of the respondent police. He submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person and has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution, and is an practicing Advocate in Theni. He, however, submitted that the petitioner is willing to abide by any conditions that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he seeks anticipatory bail for the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) submitted that there are three accused persons in this case and the petitioner has been arrayed as A1. A2 and A3 have been granted anticipatory bail by this Court on 10.06.2025 in CrI.O.P.(MD) No.9619 of 2025. There are seven previous cases registered against the petitioner. He further submitted that the injured has been discharged from the hospital. However, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Taking into consideration of the facts and circumstances of the case and the nature of the offence, and taking note of the fact that it is case, case in counter, and that the injured has been discharged from the hospital, and that the co-accused have been granted anticipatory bail by this Court, and that as the date of occurrence is 17.05.2025, by this time most of the investigation might have been completed, this court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on her appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Additional Mahila Court, Theni, on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to
