3.From the averments contained in the affidavit filed in support of this petition, it is seen that the subject property belongs to the petitioner's son. Therefore, the writ petitioner has no right over the subject property. Hence, this Court is not inclined to entertain the writ petition filed by the petitioner. Accordingly, this Writ Petition is dismissed. However, the dismissal of this writ petition will not be a bar to the son of the petitioner, who is said to be the original owner of the property from approaching this Court for necessary directions. No costs.
