The petitioner / accused, who was arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 19.04.2025 for the offences under Sections 305(a), 140(2), 111(3), 61(2), 49, 127(2), and 351(2) of the Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita, 2023, in Crime No.446 of 2025 on the file of the respondent police, seeks bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that there has been civil dispute between Mariaraj/ Accused No.1 and the victim in respect of property situated in Dindigul and Kodaikanal as the victim failed to register the sale deed in accordance with sale agreement entered into between them. In the meanwhile, the victim was found missing from his residence on 06.04.2025, hence the defacto complainant, who is the brother-in-law of victim, lodged a complaint and also alleged certain documents, computer hard disk and CCTV were also found missing from the premises. It is alleged by the prosecution that the victim was kidnapped by the accused persons at the instant of Mariaraj/ Accused No.1, upon conspiracy, because of the civil dispute between them. Hence the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He would further submit that a false case has been foisted against the petitioner. He would further submit that, after the petitioner was apprehended by the respondent

Consequently, the petitioner was admitted to the Government Hospital, Madurai, on the very date of remand, and subsequently underwent surgery for the fixation of rods in his fractured legs. He would further submit that the petitioner is in custody from 19.04.2025. Hence, he seeks bail.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) would submit that there are totally twenty four accused persons in this case and the petitioner has been arrayed as A5. He would further submit that investigation has been completed the charge sheet has been filed through e-filing mode. He would further submit that A1 and A7 have already granted bail by this Court. He would further submit that there are three previous cases against the petitioner. Therefore, he opposes the grant of bail to the petitioner.

5. This Court has heard the learned counsel on both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and the nature of the offence allegedly committed by the petitioner and also taking into consideration the period of incarceration and also the fact that A1 and A7 have already been granted bail by this Court, this court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner, however, subject to the following conditions:
