ORDER: The Court made the following order :-

The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Section 303(2) of the Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita, 2023, Section 21(1) of the Mines and Minerals (Development and Regulation) Act, 1957, in Crime No.126 of 2025 on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that on 25.05.2025 at about 07:00 AM, the Sub-Inspector of Police along with a constable were on routine inspection for sand theft. At that time, the petitioners were allegedly found transporting one unit of river sand each in a lorry. On noticing the police, the petitioners attempted to flee from the place of occurrence. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He would further submit that a false case has been foisted against the petitioners. Hence, he seeks anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) would submit that there are totally three accused persons in this case and the petitioners have been arrayed as A1 to A3. He would further submit that the first petitioner has four previous cases against him and the second and third petitioners have no previous cases against them. He would also submit that the alleged properties involved in the offence have been seized. He would also submit that the investigation is still pending, and therefore, he opposes the grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners at this stage.

5. This Court has heard the learned counsel on both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case, the nature of offence allegedly committed by the petitioners and taking note the quantity of minerals involved in this case and also taking into consideration the fact that there are no previous cases against the petitioners except the first petitioner, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners, subject to certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of their arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, before the Judicial Magistrate No.II, Karur District on condition that the petitioners shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) each with two sureties, each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent Police or to the Police Officer, who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the Judicial Magistrate No.II, Karur District and on further conditions that:

(a) the petitioners and the sureties shall affix their photographs and left thumb impression in the surety bond and the Magistrate may obtain a copy of their Aadhar card or Bank pass Book to ensure their identity.

(b) the petitioners shall furnish their residential address and mobile number to the learned Judicial Magistrate No.II, Karur District. In the event of any change in their residential address, the petitioners shall report the same to the learned Judicial Magistrate No.II, Karur District.

[c] the first petitioner shall make a non-refundable deposit of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) and the second and third petitioners shall make a non-refundable deposit of Rs.5,000/- (Rupees Five Thousand only) each to the credit of Chairman / District Collector, District Mineral Foundation Trust of the concerned District and on such deposit being made, the learned Judicial Magistrate shall accept the sureties furnished by the petitioners.

(d) the petitioners shall report before the respondent police daily at 10.30 a.m. until further orders.

(e) the petitioners shall not tamper with evidence or witness either during investigation or trial.

(f) the petitioners shall not abscond either during investigation or trial.

(g) on breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Magistrate/ Trial Court is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioners in accordance with law as if the conditions have been imposed and the petitioners released on bail by the learned Magistrate/Trial Court himself as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.K.Shaji Vs. State of Kerala [(2005) AIR SCW 5560].

(h) if the accused thereafter abscond, a fresh FIR can be registered under Section 269 of BNS, 2023.

8. In the result, this Criminal Original Petition is allowed subject to the conditions stated supra.
