ORDER : The Court made the following order :-

The petitioner, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Section 379 of the Indian Penal Code, 1860 read with Section 21(1) of the Mines and Minerals (Development and Regulation) Act, 1957, in Crime No.372 of 2023 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that on 02.12.2023, based on a tip-off received through a secret source, the respondent police conducted a search along the Cauvery River bund at Mayanoor. During the search, they found that some unknown persons had loaded river sand into a Bolero pickup van without possessing any valid permit. Upon inspection, the respondent police found 1/4 unit of river sand in the said vehicle. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He would further submit that a false case has been foisted against the petitioner. He would also submit that there are no previous cases against the petitioner. Hence, he seeks anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) would submit that there are totally three accused persons in this case and the petitioner has been arrayed as A3. He would further submit that the alleged properties have been seized by the respondent police. He would also submit that there are no previous cases against the petitioner. He would also submit that the investigation is still pending, and therefore, he opposes the grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. This Court has heard the learned counsel on both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and the nature of the offence allegedly committed by the petitioner also taking into consideration the alleged properties have already been recovered, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, subject to certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of his arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date of
