the offences punishable under Section 303(2) of the Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita, 2023, read with Section 21(1) of the Mines and Minerals (Development and Regulation) Act, 1957, in Crime No.152 of 2025 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that on 11.06.2025, based on secret information, the respondent police conducted a search at Mayanoor, Kathavanai. During the search, they found six gunny bags of river sand loaded in a Mahindra XUV-500 car, without any valid permit for transportation. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He would further submit that a false case has been foisted against the petitioner. Hence, he seeks anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) would submit that the accused person was found in possession of six gunny bags of river sand loaded in a Mahindra XUV-500 car, without any valid permit for transportation. He would further submit that the alleged properties have been seized by the respondent police.

He would also submit that there is one previous case against the petitioner. He would also submit that the investigation is still pending, and therefore, he opposes the grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. This Court has heard the learned counsel on both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and the nature of the offence allegedly committed by the petitioner and also taking into consideration the alleged properties have already been recovered, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, subject to certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of his arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, before the learned District Munsif cum Judicial Magistrate, Krishnarayapuram on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties, each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent Police or to the Police Officer, who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned District Munsif cum Judicial Magistrate, Krishnarayapuram and on further conditions that:
