2.The learned Government Pleader would submit that coaching centres are available across the State of Tamil Nadu for NEET Examination and for some other examinations.

3.However, the learned Counsel for the petitioner would submit that such facility may be extended to all such examinations including all India examinations.

4.It is a administrative decision to be taken by the Government for establishing more number of coaching centres by making suitable assessment. Court cannot interfere with such administrative affairs of the Government, which has to be considered on need basis and considering the demand in urban and rural areas, as the case may be. Therefore, the direction as such sought for in the writ petition cannot be granted. However, the Government may consider these aspects for providing better opportunity to the students studying in rural areas enabling them to appear for all India level competitive examinations seeking admission for
