custody on 26.04.2025 for the offences punishable under Sections 332(a), 103(1), 296(b) and 351(3) BNS, 2023 in Crime No.181 of 2025 on the file of the respondent police, seeks bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that one Amose and the petitioner are husband and wife, that the petitioner had illicit relationship with the first accused, who is also a married man and is having two children and that after coming to know about the same, the said Amose warned the petitioner, due to which, at the instigation of the petitioner, the first accused had murdered the said Amose by using aruval. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and she has not committed any offences as alleged by the prosecution. The petitioner is no way connected with the case, a false case has been lodged as against the petitioner. The petitioner is ready and willing to abide any conditions that may be imposed by this Court. She would further submit that the petitioner is in custody from 26.04.2025 nearly 62 days and the petitioner's 1½ years old child is with the petitioner in prison. Hence, she seeks bail.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent would submit that at the instigation of the petitioner, the first accused murdered the petitioner's husband and that the first accused is still in judicial
