the respondent police, seeks bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the respondent police found that the petitioner was in illegal possession of 50grams of ganja. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any offences as alleged by the prosecution. The petitioner is ready and willing to abide and conditions that may be imposed by this Court. He would further submit that the petitioner is in custody from 08.06.2025 nearly 13 days. Hence, he seeks bail.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) would submit that the respondent found that the petitioner was in illegal possession of 50 grams of ganja and trying to sell the same to the school and college going students. In this case, the entire contraband was seized from the petitioner/accused. The petitioner is having three previous cases. Hence, he strongly objected to grant bail to the petitioner.

5. Taking into consideration of the facts and circumstances of the case and also taking note of the fact that in this case, the entire contraband was seized by the respondent police, the petitioner/accused remanded into judicial custody on 08.06.2025, taking into consideration of the period of incarceration, this court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner, subject to the following conditions:
