The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 296(b), 308(4) and 351(3) of the Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita (BNS), 2023, in Crime No.607 of 2025 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the defacto complainant is an Advocate by profession and the 1st accused obtained legal opinion about land from the defacto complainant since 2022. Further, on 11.06.2025 the 1st accused called the defacto complainant for getting legal opinion for land and subsequently, the 1st accused and the defacto complainant along with his relative namely Parvesh met on 13.06.2025 around 2 .00 p.m., at the residence of 1st accused. In the meantime, the 2nd accused/petitioner was introduced to the defacto complainant. At that time, there was a wordy quarrel between them, the petitioner along with A1 had abused the defacto complainant in filthy language and attacked him and snatched a sum of Rs.5,000/- from the defacto complainant. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any offences as alleged by the prosecution. He further submitted that there is no previous case pending against the petitioner. He further submitted that the petitioner is ready and willing to abide by any conditions which may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he seeks anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) submitted that there is no previous case pending against the petitioner and the investigation is almost completed. He further submitted that the property has been recovered. However, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also the fact that the investigation might have been completed and there is no previous case pending against the petitioner, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, subject to certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of his arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, before the Judicial Magistrate Court No.V, Tirunelveli, on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of
