bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that this petitioner and the defacto-complainant's sister have love affair, the same was questioned by the defacto-complainant, due to which this petitioner abused him in filthy language and attacked with knife with an intent to murder him and caused severe injuries. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any offences as alleged by the prosecution. The petitioner is ready and willing to abide and conditions that may be imposed by this Court. He would further submit that the petitioner is in custody from 10.06.2025 nearly 16 days. Hence, he seeks bail.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) would submit that this petitioner and the defacto-complainant's sister have love affair, the same was questioned by the defacto-complainant, due to which this petitioner abused him in filthy language and attacked with knife with an intent to murder him and caused severe injuries. The injured person was discharged from hospital. There is no previous case against this petitioner. However, he strongly objected to grant bail to the petitioner.

5. Taking into consideration of the facts and circumstances of the case and also
