anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that on 14.06.2025, the defacto complainant preferred the complaint alleging that the properties in S.Nos.83/14B2, 83/14B1, 83/4B belongs to the defacto complainant's ancestral properties and they are in possession and occupation of the said properties. On 18.07.2024, in order to grab the properties, the petitioners fabricated false documents and registered the said properties in their names in Doc.No.4241 of 2020. Hence, a case was registered.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submitted that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He, however, submitted that the petitioners are willing to abide by any conditions that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he seeks anticipatory bail.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. side) submitted that there are totally seven accused persons in this case and they created false documents and registered the properties in their names. There are no previous cases registered against the petitioners. He further submitted that the entire properties have been recovered. However, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Taking into consideration of the facts and circumstances of the case, the nature of the offence, and also taking note of the fact that there are no previous cases pending against the petitioners, and that as the date of occurrence is 14.06.2025, by this time most of the investigation might have been completed, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, subject to certain conditions.
