police, seeks bail,

2. The case of the prosecution is that there was already previous enmity regarding land between the defacto complainant 's brother and the petitioner's husband. Further on 01.05.2025 at around a10.30 p.m., the petitioner along with other accused persons attacked the defacto complainant's husband and her brother, the daughter of the defacto complainant tried to prevent the attack. Further, the petitioner's son/A1 had attacked the husband of the defacto complainant with broad sword and other accused persons had attacked the daughter of the defacto complainant and her brother with wooden log. As a result of which, the defacto complainant's husband succumbed to the injuries and died. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person and she has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He further submitted that the petitioner is in judicial custody from 01.05.2025. He further submitted that the petitioner is ready and willing to abide by any stringent conditions that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he seeks bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) submitted that there was a civil dispute pending between them. He further submitted that the petitioner along with her family members have attacked the defacto complainant's family, due to which, the husband of the defacto complainant died. He further submitted that the investigation is at initial stage. Hence, he opposed for grant of bail to the petitioner.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also the nature of the offence allegedly committed by the petitioner and also considering the gravity of offence and also taking note that the investigation is at crucial stage, this Court is not inclined to grant bail to the petitioner.

6. Accordingly, this Criminal Original Petition is dismissed. No costs.
