For Anticipatory Bail in Crime No.86 of 2025 on the file of the Respondent Police.

ORDER : The Court made the following order :-

The petitioner/ A6, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 115(2), 126(2), 191(2), 296(b), 104 and 194 of BNS, 2023 in Crime No.86 of 2025 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that on 17.04.2025, while the de-facto complainant and her husband were travelling on a two-wheeler, the accused persons restrained them, abused the de-facto complainant's husband using filthy language, and assaulted him on the head with their hands. Thereafter, the de-facto complainant and her husband returned to their residence. Due to a prior surgery on his head and the assault made by the accused persons, the de-facto complainant's husband began suffering from fits. He was admitted to the Pattukottai Government Hospital and was later taken to Thanjavur Medical College Hospital. Subsequently, on 20.04.2025, he passed away. Hence, a case has been registered.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person and has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He has been falsely implicated in this case. He, however, submitted that the petitioner is willing to abide by any conditions that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he seeks anticipatory bail.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. side) submits that there are totally 6 accused persons in this case and the petitioner has been arrayed as A6. A1 to A5 were arrested and subsequently released on bail. He submitted that the deceased had previously undergone surgery on his head due to an earlier accident, and that as a result of the assault made by the accused, he suffered fits and subsequently died. He further submitted that the investigation in this case has been completed. However, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Taking into consideration of the facts and circumstances of the case, the nature of the offence, and in view of the change in circumstances that the co-accused were arrested and subsequently released on bail, and taking note of the fact that as the investigation in this case has already been completed, the custodial interrogation of the petitioner is not necessary at this stage, this court is inclined to grant
