Section 4 of TNPHW Act in Crime No.577 of 2025 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the de-facto complainant is the wife of the petitioner. Due to misunderstandings between them, they have separated. On 02.06.2025, the petitioner trespassed into the shop where the de-facto complainant was working, abused her using filthy language, and threatened her with dire consequences. Hence, the present case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person and has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. Hence, he seeks anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) submitted that the petitioner is the sole accused in this case. Due to the incident, no one sustained any injuries. He further submitted that there are no previous cases registered against the petitioner. Hence, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Taking into consideration of the facts and circumstances of the case and the nature of the offence, and taking note of the fact that there are no previous cases registered against the petitioner, and that no one sustained any injuries in the incident, this court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, with certain
