BNS, in Crime No.106 of 2025 on the file of the respondent police, seeks bail,

2. The case of the prosecution is that the defacto complainant is the husband of the deceased. The accused/petitioner is the brother of the deceased. On 12.04.2025, the petitioner went to the house of the deceased and he asked the defacto complainant that he want to talk to her sister. Thereafter, the defacto complainant went outside of his house and after 10 minutes, the accused came out and went in his two wheeler. At that time, when the defacto complainant went inside his house, he saw his wife dead with blood on her ears and injury on her neck. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He would further submit that there is no previous case pending against the petitioner. He would further submit that the petitioner is in custody from 13.04.2025. Hence, he seeks bail.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) would submit that there is no previous case pending against the petitioner and the investigation is almost completed. However, he objected to grant bail to the petitioner.

5. Taking into consideration of the facts and circumstances of the case and also the fact that most of the investigation might have been completed and there is no previous case pending against the petitioner and taking into consideration of the period of incarceration suffered by the petitioner, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner, subject to the following conditions:

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail on executing a bond for a sum of Rs.25,000/- (Rupees Twenty Five thousand only) with two sureties, each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Judicial Magistrate No.II, Kulithalai, and on further conditions that :-

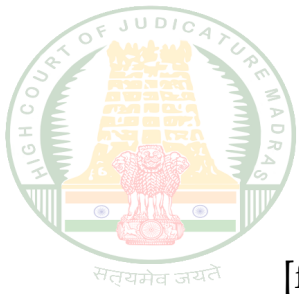

[a] the sureties shall affix their photographs and Left Thumb Impression in the surety bond and the Magistrate may obtain a copy of their Aadhar card or Bank pass Book to ensure their identity.

[b] The petitioner shall furnish his residential address and mobile number to the learned Judicial Magistrate No.II, Kulithalai.

(c) If the petitioner changes his residential address, he shall report the same to the learned Judicial Magistrate No.II, Kulithalai.

[d] the petitioner shall report before the respondent police daily at 10.30 a.m., until further orders.

[e] the petitioner shall not abscond either during investigation or trial.

[g] On breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Magistrate/Trial Court is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioner in accordance with law as if the conditions have been imposed and the petitioner released on bail by the learned Magistrate/Trial Court himself as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.K.Shaji vs. State of Kerala [(2005)AIR SCW 5560].

[h] If the accused thereafter absconds, a fresh FIR can be registered under Section 269 BNS.
