in Crime No.419 of 2025 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner and the de-facto complainant are neighbours. Due to previous enmity regarding vehicle parking, on 12.05.2025, at about 10.00 a.m., the accused abused the de-facto complainant using filthy language and assaulted him by hitting his face with a stone. Hence, the present case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person and has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He further submitted that the co-accused have already been granted anticipatory bail. He, however, submitted that the petitioner is ready to abide by any conditions that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he seeks anticipatory bail for the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) submitted that there are totally three accused persons in this case and the petitioner has been arrayed as A1 in this case. A2 and A3 have been granted anticipatory bail on 06.06.2025 by the learned that the injured has been discharged from the hospital. However, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

Principal Sessions Judge, Madurai in Crl.M.P.No.2284 of 2025. He further submitted

5. Taking into consideration of the facts and circumstances of the case and the nature of the offence, and taking note of the fact that as the date of occurrence is 12.05.2025, by this time most of the investigation might have been completed, and that the injured has been discharged from the hospital, and that the co-accused have been granted anticipatory bail, this court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on her appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate No.VI, Madurai, on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Judicial Magistrate No.VI, Madurai, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand dismissed and on further condition that:

(a) the petitioner and the sureties shall affix their photographs and left thumb impression in the surety bond and the Magistrate may obtain a copy of their Aadhar card or Bank pass Book to ensure their identity;

(c) the petitioner shall report before the respondent police daily at 10.30 a.m. until further orders;

(d) the petitioner shall not tamper with evidence or witness either during investigation or trial;
