ORDER

The present Transfer Civil Miscellaneous Petition has been filed to withdraw the case in H.M.O.P.No.93 of 2025 from the file of the Family Court, Dindigul, and transfer the same to the file of the Family Court, Thanjavur.

2. The petitioner is the wife and the respondent is the husband. The marriage between the petitioner and the respondent was solemnized on 29.08.2022 at Chithara Marriage Hall near by RMTC Unit-II, Natham Road, Dindigul, as per the Hindu Rites and Customs.

3. Due to some matrimonial discord, the parties have separated. Therefore, the wife/petitioner initiated a proceedings in H.M.O.P.No.33 of 2025, before the Family Court, Thanjavur, seeking divorce and the same is pending. The respondent/husband also initiated a proceedings in H.M.O.P.No.93 of 2025, before the Family Court, Dindigul, seeking restitution of conjugal rights.

4. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner/wife submits that now the petitioner is living at Thanjavur District. The distance between the petitioner's domicile to Dindigul is around 155 Kms, and being a lady, she finds it difficult to travel such a long distance for attending every Court hearing. Hence, he seeks to allow this petition as prayed for.

5. Heard the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner and learned counsel for the respondent and perused the materials available on records.

6. In the case of N.C.V.Aishwarya Vs. A.S.Saravana Karthik Sha reported in 2022 Live Law (SC) 627, the Hon'ble Supreme Court has dealt with the position generally, that it is the wife's convenience, which must be looked into while considering the transfer petition under Section 24 of the Code of Civil Procedure and the relevant passage is extracted hereunder :

“The cardinal principle for exercise of power under Section 24 of the Code of Civil Procedure is that the ends of justice should demand the transfer of the suit, appeal or other proceeding. In matrimonial matters, wherever Courts are called upon to consider the plea of transfer; the Courts have to take into consideration the economic soundness of both the parties, the social strata of the spouses and their behavioural pattern, their standard of life prior to the marriage and subsequent thereto and the circumstances of both the parties in eking out their livelihood and under whose protective umbrella they are seeking their sustenance to life. Given the prevailing socioeconomic paradigm in the Indian society, generally, it is the wife's convenience which must be looked at while considering transfer.", the bench observed."

7. It is also well settled proposition of law that whenever a transfer petition is filed in matrimonial disputes, the convenience of the wife should be predominantly looked into, and the wife's convenience shall be given preference.

8. Considering the overall facts and circumstances of the case and also taking into account of the inconvenience expressed by the petitioner in attending every court hearing by travelling an 3 hour journey to reach the Family Court, Dindigul, situated 155 km away from her domicile, incurring huge expense, this court inclines to allow the petition.
