2.The case of the prosecution is that on 17.04.2025 the defacto complainant lodged a complaint alleging that the petitioner had sexually assaulted the victim. Hence, the complaint.

3.The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He would further submit that the petitioner is ready and willing to abide any conditions that may be imposed by this Court. He would further submit that the petitioner is in custody from 18.04.2025 nearly 89 days and the petitioner is not having any previous case. Hence, he seeks bail.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) would submit that the petitioner had sexually assaulted the victim. He would further submit that investigation is almost completed and the statement under Section 183 BNSS was recorded and the medical examination of victim was completed. However, he objected to grant bail to the petitioner.

5. Taking into consideration of the facts and circumstances of the case and also taking note of the fact that the investigation is almost completed and the statement under Section 183 BNSS was recorded and the medical examination of victim was completed and also considering the fact that the petitioner/Accused is in judicial custody from 18.04.2025, taking into consideration of the period of incarceration, this court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner, subject to the following conditions:

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail on executing a bond for a sum of Rs.25,000/- (Rupees Twenty Five Thousand only) with two sureties, each for a like sum to the satisfaction of learned Sessions Judge, Mahila Court, Tiruchirappalli and on further conditions that :-

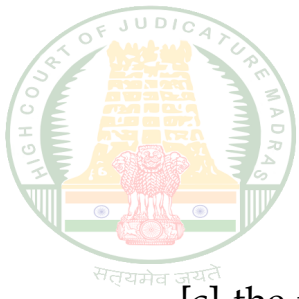

[a] the sureties shall affix their photographs and Left Thumb Impression in the surety bond and the Magistrate may obtain a copy of their Aadhar card or Bank pass Book to ensure their identity.

[b] The petitioner shall furnish his residential address and contact number to the learned Sessions Judge, Mahila Court, Tiruchirappalli. If the petitioner changes his residential address, he shall report the same to the learned Sessions Judge,
