ORDER

This Writ Petition has been filed seeking a direction to the respondents to reckon the petitioner's service period from 07.11.1995 instead of 15.09.1996 and to take into account the Dearness Allowance as revised in January 2018 and consequently, disburse the balance terminal benefits due to the petitioner along with interest at the rate of 6% per annum, based on the petitioner's representation dated 14.03.2025.

2. The petitioner was appointed as a 'Driver' in the respondent Corporation on 07.11.1995 and retired from service on 31.03.2018. The learned counsel for the petitioner submits that, while the actual date of appointment is 07.11.1995, the respondents erroneously reckoned the petitioner's service period from 15.09.1996. As a result, the differential amount of terminal benefits payable to the petitioner has not been disbursed. Despite making several representations in person to the respondents, no effective action was taken. Subsequently, the petitioner submitted a written representation dated 14.03.2025, seeking redressal of the issue.

However, as no action has been taken pursuant to the said representation, the petitioner is left with no alternative but to approach this Court by way of the present Writ Petition seeking appropriate relief.

3. It is needless to point out that whenever a representation of this nature is made to a Statutory Authority, there is a duty cast upon him to consider the same on its own merits and pass appropriate orders in one way or other, instead of keeping the same pending indefinitely. As such, non-consideration of the representation by the Statutory Authority would amount to dereliction of duty and hence, this Court will be justified in invoking its extraordinary powers under Article 226 of the Constitution of India and direct them to consider the same within a stipulated time.

4. In the light of the above observations, there shall be a direction to the first respondent to consider the petitioner's representation dated 14.03.2025, on its own merits and pass appropriate orders in accordance with law, within a period of two months from the date of receipt of a copy of this order. It is also made clear that this Court has not expressed any of its views with regard to the merits of the matter and that it is open to the first respondent to consider the same on its own merits.

5. With the above observations and directions, the Writ Petition stands disposed of. There shall be no order as to costs.
