2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner misbehaved with the defacto complainant's daughter, who is aged about 3 years and also threatened them with dire consequences. Hence, a case has been registered.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submits that initially the petitioner was enlarged on bail and he had changed his residence and informed the same to the nearest post office and also given his mobile number, because he expected summons from the Court. However, no summons was served to the petitioner. But suddenly he was arrested on Non Bailable Warrant. He would further submit that the petitioner is having permanent place of residence and hence, he will not abscond or evade process of law and he is in judicial custody from 15.05.2025 and is ready to abide by any conditions imposed by this Court. Hence, he seeks bail.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.side) submits that the petitioner, aged 67 years, misbehaved with the defacto complainant's minor daughter and also threatened them. In this case, the petitioner was already granted bail, but he absconded, and Non Bailable Warrant was issued on 05.05.2025 and the same was executed on 15.05.2025. If the petitioner is released on bail, he will again abscond and the progress of the case will be affected. Hence, the petition may be dismissed.

5. Taking into consideration of the above facts and circumstances and also the fact that the petitioner, who was already granted bail, subsequently, he absconded and hence, he was arrested on execution of Nonailable Warrant and also taking into consideration the gravity of offence committed by the petitioner, this Court is not inclined to grant bail to the petitioner.

6. Accordingly, this Criminal Original Petition is dismissed.
