before the third respondent. The third respondent had registered a case in Cr.No. 95/2025 on 22.06.2025 for 'woman missing'. Since no action has been taken, the petitioner has filed the present habeas corpus petition.

4. When the matter is taken up for hearing today, the learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondents, on instructions, would submit that based on the complaint given by the petitioner, a case in Cr.No.95 of 2025 has been registered for 'woman missing'. During the course of investigation, it came to light that the missing person Tamilarasi was in love with one Praveenkumar, who is working in Software company at Chennai. Since the parents of Tamilarasi are against her wishes, she had on her own volition gone to Chennai on 22.06.2025 and that they have got married at Chennai on 23.06.2025. Their marriage has also been registered in the office of the Sub Registrar, Periyamedu. Subsequently, the parents of the Praveenkumar had brought the missing person and produced her before the respondent police, wherein, she had given a statement that she had married the Praveenkumar. The same was also informed to the petitioner and the missing person expressed her unwillingness to go along with her parents. She is now staying in the One Stop Centre, Usilampatti, Madurai on her own volition. He would submit that it is not a case of illegal detention or kidnapping.
