The petitioner/Sole Accused, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 296(b), 109 and 351(3) of BNS in Crime No.191 of 2025 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the defacto complainant is the wife of the victim and the victim and the petitioner are brothers. There arose wordy quarrel between them, due to which, the petitioner attacked the defacto complainant with knife and caused injuries and also threatened with dire consequences. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is innocent and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He further submits that the case in counter in Crime No.190 of 2025 is pending.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) submits that the injured was discharged from the hospital and the investigation has been completed.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, and taking into account of the fact that the injured was discharged from the hospital and the case in counter in Crime No.190 of 2025 is pending, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, subject to certain conditions.
