The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 296(b) and 118(1) of BNS in Crime No.240 of 2025 on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that there was a wordy quarrel between the petitioners and the defacto complainant, due to which, the petitioners along with other accused abused the defacto complainant in filthy language and assaulted him. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners submits that the petitioners are innocents and they have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) for the respondent police submits that the injured was discharged from the hospital. He further submits that there is no previous case against the petitioners.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also the facts that the injured was discharged from the hospital, that the petitioners are not having any previous case for similar or serious offence, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners, subject to certain conditions.
