PRAYER : Criminal Original Petition filed under Section 482 of the Bharatiya
Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023 (BNSS) for Anticipatory Bail in Crime No.156 of 2025 on the file of the respondent police.

For Petitioners : Mr.C.Prithviraj,
Advocate

For Respondent : Mr.M.Karunanithi,
Government Advocate
(Criminal Side)

CRL OP(MD).No.11220 of 2025

ORDER: The Court made the following order :-

The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Section 303(2) of the Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita, 2023 and Section 21(1) of the Mines and Minerals (Development and Regulation) Act, 1957, in Crime No.156 of 2025 on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that, on 14.06.2025, an inspection was conducted by the Village Administrative Officer along with other Government officials in the land situated in Survey No.6/2, measuring 1.55.5 ares, located at Nagaiyakottai Village, Dindigul District. The said property originally belonged to one Mr.Veerapa Gowdar, who, as per village records, is deceased. During the inspection, certain machinery used for sand washing was found to have been kept illegally on the said land. It was also discovered that sand had been stored without proper permission from the Government. At the time of inspection, no person was present at the site. The machinery was sealed by the authorities. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He would further submit that a false case has been foisted against the petitioners. He would further submit that there no previous cases against the petitioners. Hence, he seeks anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) submitted that the sand had been washed illegally by using a machine. He would further submit that the machine used for washing the sand was sealed by the authorities during the course of inspection. He would further submit that there are no previous cases against the petitioners. He would also submit that the alleged properties involved in the offence have been seized. He would also submit that the investigation is still pending, and therefore, he opposes the grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners at this stage.

5. This Court has heard the learned counsel on both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case, the nature of offence allegedly committed by the petitioners and taking note the quantity of
