CRL OP(MD). No.11269 of 2025

PRAYER :-

For Bail in Crime No.169 of 2025 on the file of the Respondent police.

ORDER : The Court made the following order :-

The petitioner / Accused No.2, who was arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 09.05.2025 for the offences punishable under Sections 296(b), 115(2), 103 and 351(3) BNS, 2023 in Crime No.169 of 2025 on the file of the respondent police, seeks bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the defacto complainant's husband Pandi borrowed a loan from the first accused, who is the son of the petitioner and since the said Pandi has not repaid the amount, the petitioner had demanded him to repay the amount and that on 08.05.2025, there arose wordy quarrel between the petitioner and the said Pandi and at that time, the said Pandi pushed down the petitioner, for which, the first accused had stabbed the said Pandi by using knife and as a result of which, he succumbed to the injuries. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and she has not committed any offences as alleged by the prosecution. He would further submit that the petitioner is no way connected with the case, a false case has been lodged as against the petitioner. The petitioner is ready and willing to abide any conditions that may be imposed by this Court. He would further submit that the petitioner is in custody from 09.05.2025 nearly 61 days. Hence, he seeks bail.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent would submit that there are totally 3 accused, the petitioner arrayed as A2 and that the petitioner along with other accused had murdered the said Pandi. He would further submit that the first accused is in judicial custody and the third accused, who is the grandfather of the first accused, is absconding. He would fairly concede that the petitioner is not having any previous cases. However, he objected to grant bail to the petitioner.

5. Taking into consideration of the facts and circumstances of the case and considering the limited overt act attributed against the petitioner and also the fact that by this time, most of the investigation might have been completed and taking note of the fact that the petitioner remanded into judicial custody on 09.05.2025, taking into consideration of the period of incarceration, this court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner, subject to the following conditions:
